The Branch County Commission on Aging observes the following holiday:

- Juneteenth - Wednesday, June 19

PROTECTING YOURSELF AGAINST FINANCIAL ABUSE AND SCAMS

Financial exploitation of seniors is a growing concern, with scammers employing increasingly sophisticated methods to deceive and defraud some of the most vulnerable members of our society.

In today's fast-paced and increasingly digital world, staying vigilant about our financial security is more important than ever, especially for seniors who are often targeted by unscrupulous individuals. To help protect yourself from potential scams and financial abuse, here are what you can watch out for:

- Suspicious Phone Calls and Emails: Be cautious of unsolicited phone calls or emails asking for personal information, such as your Social Security number, bank account details, or credit card numbers. Scammers often pose as representatives from reputable organizations to gain your trust.
- Too-Good-To-Be-True Offers: If an offer sounds too good to be true, it probably is. This includes unexpected prize notifications, investment opportunities promising high returns with no risk, and requests for money to claim a prize or inheritance.
- Pressure Tactics: Scammers often create a sense of urgency to push you into making decisions without giving you time to think or consult with someone you trust. They might say you need to act now to secure an offer or protect your account.
- Requests for Money Transfers: Be wary of any requests to send money, especially through wire transfers, gift cards, or other untraceable methods. Once the money is sent, it's nearly impossible to recover.
- New Acquaintances Expressing Interest in Your Finances: While it's wonderful to make new friends, be cautious of individuals who show an unusual interest in your financial affairs, especially if they suggest new investment opportunities or express a desire to manage your finances.

HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELF:

- Verify Contacts: Always verify the identity of anyone contacting you claiming to be from a bank, government agency, or other organization. Use contact information you find through official websites or your own records.
- Use Direct Deposit: Opt for direct deposit for regular payments such as Social Security benefits or pension payments to reduce the risk of theft.
- Consult with Trusted Family or Friends: Before making any financial decisions or investments, talk to someone you trust. A second opinion can provide valuable perspective.
- Secure Personal Information: Keep your personal and financial documents in a safe place. Shred any old documents that contain sensitive information before disposing of them.
- Stay Informed: Keep abreast of the latest scams targeting seniors. Awareness is your first line of defense.

It is okay to say no to any requests for information or money, especially if you feel unsure or pressured. Trust your instincts. If something feels off, it likely is. Your financial security is paramount. If you ever suspect you've been targeted by a scam or are facing financial abuse, please don't hesitate to reach out to trusted family members, friends, or authorities for help.

“Singin’ in the Rain”

In 1927, silent film stars Don Lockwood and Lina Lamont attend the premiere of their latest film, The Royal Rascal. Film studio Monumental Pictures encourages rumors of a romance between Don and Lina. Don dislikes the rumors and barely tolerates Lina, but Lina believes Don loves her. At a red-carpet interview, Don tells the story of his rise to stardom. Don says he grew up cultured and highly educated, but his words are contradicted by flashbacks showing his humble roots as a hooper, vaudeville, musician, and stuntman, alongside his childhood best friend, Cosmo Brown (“Fit as a Fiddle”).
